PRESS REVIEW

❖ James Suckling: 92 points

Aromas of walnut, plum and berry with hints of dried strawberry follow through to a full to medium body, firm and lightly chewy tannins and a savory finish. A mineral and rock undertone on the close. Very Mediterranean in nature. Drink now or hold. (2014 vintage)

❖ Wine Spectator Score: 87 points

Slightly taut in feel, but pure, with a plum-skin edge framing violet, bitter cherry and iron notes. Might flesh out a touch with brief cellaring. Niellucciu and Syrah. Drink now through 2017. - JM

❖ Jancis Robinson: 15.5/20
Vintage 2015

❖ James Suckling: 91 points

A vivid and clean white with sliced green apple, pine needle and cement character. Medium body and bright acidity. Creamy texture. Made from vermentino. Drink now.

❖ Wine Spectator Score: 88 points

Fresh, with a good, racy edge to the mix of white peach, straw and, blanched almond notes. Shows good zip through the finish. Vermentino. Drink now. 2,833 cases made. -JM

❖ Jancis Robinson: 16/20
Vintage 2017

❖ Guide Hachette Rosés 2017-2018: ★★

[...] dévoile un bouquet intense et complexe, à la fois floral, fruité et exotique. La bouche se révèle gourmande à souhait, franche en attaque, ronde et généreuse dans son développement, un brin plus stricte en finale. Un rosé solaire.

❖ Wine Spectator Score: 84 points

Soft, with light peach and strawberry notes, backed by an easy finish. Niellucciu. Drink now. 3,333 cases made. -JM

❖ James Suckling: 88 points
Pretty, lightly sweet muscat with limes and hints of spice and kiwis. Medium-bodied, dense and oily. Drink now.

❖ James Suckling: 90 points
Aromas of sour cherries with lemon-bush understones and a hint of orange peel. Full-bodied, round and rich, yet with lightly chewy tannins. Flavoured finish. Drink and enjoy.

❖ James Suckling: 91 points
Minerality and freshness to this delicious white sliced green-apple and lemon character and hints of stones. Medium body and a delicious finish. Elegant and refined. Drink now

❖ Jancis Robinson: 16/20
Vintage 2017

❖ James Suckling: 92 points
Interesting nose, offering apples, cooked pears and hints of apricots. Medium body, good concentration of fruit and a flavorful finish. Hint of bitter lemon, too. Drink now.

❖ James Suckling: 90 points
A layered and flavorful rosé with sliced peaches and a hint of iron on the nose and palate. Drink now.

❖ The Tasting Panel Magazine: 92 points

[...] this delicate, superbly balanced rosé not only exhibits freshly picked raspberries and strawberries, but a brilliant texture that allows one to feel the sheer minerals and softness of rose petals. Pink grapefruit and prickly pear add a memorable touch to the finish.

❖ Wine Spectator Score: 84 points
Has a plump feel, with modest intensity to the mix of peach and white cherry flavors. Offers an open, easy finish. Nielluccio and Syrah. Drink now. 15,000 cases made.—JM

❖ Jancis Robinson: 15/20
Vintage 2017

❖ Wine & Spirit Magazine : 91 points
This takes the salty mineral flavors of vermentino and enriches them with a little chardonnay. The effect is at once mouthfilling and refreshing, lasting with delicate floral notes, as well as a firm lemony savor.

❖ Wine Spectator Score: 87 points
A hint of tangerine mingles with chamomile, straw and verbena notes, ending with a light whiff of almond on the slightly rustic finish. Vermentino and Chardonnay. Drink now. 8,665 cases made.—JM

❖ Jancis Robinson: 15.5/20
Vintage 2017

❖ James Suckling: 89 points
A layered and dense rosé with dried apples, peaches and hints of plums. Medium body. Simple finish. Drink now.

❖ Wine Spectator Score: 83 points
Light and fresh, with breezy white cherry and white raspberry fruit. Quick finish. Drink now. 200 cases imported.—JM

❖ Wine Spectator Score: 87 points
A lightly dusty frame surrounds a perfumed core of cherry and damson plum fruit, laced with a sandalwood hint and ending with a firm tea accent. Nielluccio and Merlot. Drink now. 8,330 cases made.—JM
